

Property & Casualty

State Filings ... Compliance ... Product Development ... Actuarial ... Competitive Intelligence

Martin & Company is the industry's premier consulting and insurance state filing firm with knowledge and experience across all states and lines of business.

Corporate Solutions

As a leading industry consulting firm, Martin & Company approaches every project with a sense of urgency which allows us to drive projects forward quickly. Most often "time is of the essence" so we understand that to be successful and meet the demands of today's business pace we need to be flexible. Companies continue to face many operational and regulatory challenges today so you need a thought partner like Martin & Company to provide consultation on those more complex projects, as well as those small, but very important projects that are often overlooked.

Core Business Segments

- State Filing Services
- Actuarial Consulting
- Regulatory Compliance
- Product Development
- Competitive Intelligence
- Company Licensing & Expansion

Business Processes that Make a Difference

- Increased Emphasis on Speed To Market
- Efficient & Secure Online Applications
- Bureau Strategic Partners & SERFF Authorized
- Emerging Technology Platforms
- Monitoring and Maintenance Programs
- Project Management

FilingsDirect.com

Since 1993 we have been a competitive intelligence leader serving carriers, agents and brokers of all sizes. We have constructed one of the best online competitive search tools in the industry for carrier rate, rule and form filings, which is also backed by an extremely knowledgeable staff you can still call for assistance.

Bureau Monitoring ADVISOR

Our compliance and technology team have spent years developing one of the more innovative solutions in the market today. Bureau Monitoring ADVISOR is customizable for any size company that needs a new and innovative solution to manage and react quickly to action items issued by rating bureaus.